

Food safety Policy of products provided for food and feed industry

Avantor Performance Materials Poland SA Join- Stock Company, as manufacturer and provider of chemical reagents and purified chemicals, including feed additives and premixes as well as products provided for food industry is fully aware of significance to provide food safety of the products offered to recipients from food and feed industry.

The Company accomplishes the food safety policy on continuous basis applying the following principles by means of:

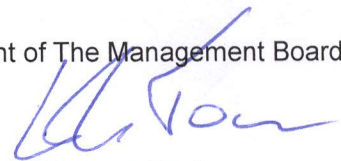

- observing requirements resulting from the regulations as well as products contracts,
- continuous meeting the requirements of our customers and anticipating their future demands,
- running technological processes according to the appropriate technological documentation and according to management systems documents consistent with FAMI-QS Code of Practice guidelines as well as with Codex Alimentarius,
- cooperation with suppliers of confirmed competences,
- increasing employees' awareness within the scope of product food safety,
- performing reliable analysis and identification of potential risks or the products food safety and determining appropriate means of control of those risks,
- continuous monitoring of processes being run parameters and evaluation of their consistency with the requirements.

Realization of food safety policy of products provided for food and feed industry as well as a system functioning are systematically supervised by internal audits and management reviews.

Evaluation of efficiency of the management system functioning consistent with FAMI -QS Code of Practice as well as Codex Alimentarius, including consecutive undertaking the actions leading to its improvement allows providing successful development in cooperation with our Customers.

All employees of Avantor Performance Materials Poland SA have gotten acquainted with the food safety policy of the products provided for food and feed industry. The policy is available at our Internet site www.poch.com.pl.

President of The Management Board

Tomasz Kania

Gliwice, August 2014